

Introducing the conductor as a pedagogical rehabilitation professional –
Conference in the European Parliament Brussels
10 October 2017

Hosted by Ádám Kósa MEP, co-sponsored by Danuta Jazłowiecka MEP, with the partnership of the András Pető Faculty of the Semmelweis University, Budapest, Hungary

The programme of the conference

Registration and reception: 13:00 – 13:30 in front of the conference room

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| 13.30 – 13:45 | Opening address by Dr Ádám Kósa , MEP |
| 13.45 – 14.00 | Inclusive Education. The benefit of the Erasmus programme for children/people with special needs. – Dr Tibor Navracsics , European Commissioner for Education, Culture, Youth and Sport |
| 14.00 – 14.10 | Introduction the conductor as a pedagogical rehabilitation professional – Eszter Daróczy Dean's representative for international relations, András Pető Faculty of the Semmelweis University, Budapest, Hungary |
| 14.10 – 14.20 | Employment opportunities for conductors in the UK including development of professional standards and regulation of conductors through a national body – Melanie Brown PhD CEO, Director of Services, Senior Conductor, National Institute for Conductive Education, Birmingham, UK |
| 14.20 – 14.30 | The possibilities of supporting conductive education activities in Europe by the European Conductive Association – Beate Höß-Zenker , CEO of Phoenix GmbH Konduktives Förderzentrum, President of ECA – Munich, Germany |
| 14.30 – 14.40 | Conductor's role in a rehabilitation hospital – Prof Dr Bernard Dan – Medical and Paramedical Director, Inkendaal Rehabilitation Hospital, Vlezenbeek, Belgium |
| 14.40 – 14.50 | Adaptation of the employment of the conductor professional in Sweden – Eszter Tóthné Horváth – Director/owner, Move and Walk, Gothenburg, Sweden |
| 14.50 – 15.00 | Conductor in a multidisciplinary team to support the development of conductive education in Poland – Maria Król – President, Association "Krok za krokiem", Zamość, Poland – sponsored by Saryusz-Wolski Jacek |
| 15.00 – 15.10 | Parents initiative for conductive education and the employment of the conductors in Germany as a result of 20 years of work – Peter von Quadt – CEO, FortSchritt gGmbH, Starnberg, Germany |
| 15.10 – 15.30 | Questions and answers |
| 15.30 | Closing the conference |